A LOVE STORY

FROM SPLENDIDO > PIANO PIANO

It was a dream to own a restaurant like Splendido. I first started at Splendido in 2005, as an assistant pastry chef working under Chef David Lee. In July 2009, I fulfilled my dream of owning the renowned restaurant, at the young age of 26. December 31st, 2015 was our last service and it felt amazing to leave on a high and I am extremely proud of that.

We've created so many memories here and we are looking forward to writing a new chapter at Piano Piano. I love everything about Italian food and we wanted to create a space where people felt like they were dining in my home, afterall, our restaurants are our second home. When people ask me what region of Italy we are cooking, I joke with them... New Jersey.

The food of Piano Piano is soulfully satisfying, tending to your hunger like a Nonna's instinctive touch. Every ingredient is on the plate for a reason, combining to make each dish far greater than the sum of its parts. It's "tasty & f*#kn delicious!"

The name Piano Piano comes from "piano piano va lontano", an Italian phrase I love that translates to "slowly, slowly we go further". And that's the dream... that if we slow down, take time to enjoy one another, great food and great wine then we all move together further as a family. Piano Piano is the Italian restaurant you always wished was just around the corner, and now it is.

KISSES

Sometimes the best meals revolve around great company and large platters of food down the middle of the table!

Let's face it... the truth is, if you were at Nonna's you wouldn't know what's coming to the table, you would just know that it was going to be
"tasty & f*#kn delicious!"

BRENDAN PIUNNO & VICTOR BARRY

Vic met Brendan growing up in Niagara-on-the-Lake and they have always shared the same passion for "Tasty & f*#kin' delicious!" food and hospitality. Together they have over forty years experience in the restaurant industry and PIANO PIANO is the first time they will have reunited after their famous McNab dinner parties. They always joked that one day they would work together again and throw dinner parties every night and now they do just that!
